AUTO PARADE MADE BIG FEATURE

For Opening Event of Merchants' Week—55 Autos in Line and Over 300 Children Ride—Happy Day for Little Folks and Interesting Sight for Their Elders.

The Saturday morning automobile parade, with school children in the cars, which was arranged as the opening feature of Merchants' Week, had the finest kind of weather provided for it. A most gratifying participation in it by a large number of citizens who contributed their cars for the parade, and the unbounded enthusiasm of the more than three hundred children who rode in the 55 automobiles in the parade. All these elements combined to make it an instant success.

Reported at Union Square. At 10 o'clock the automobiles reported at Union square, where they met the committee in charge and were dispatched to the different schools where groups of children were waiting to be taken aboard. In some cases unexpected happenings prevented those who had volunteered from having their cars on hand and about 75 children who had gathered at Union square had to be left behind because of shortage of room to ride. The committee in charge of the parade consisted of James L. Case, Chairman; James C. MacPherson, Henry W. Tibbitts, E. R. Wulf, C. I. Smith and Russell Hunt, with the Merchants' Week entertainment committee of which W. A. Samers is chairman.

By 11:15 the cars were all back with their loads of children at Main street near Fessenden bridge where the line was formed and the parade moved off with Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell Baird in the pilot car, which carried several children besides, who were particularly proud because they were at the head of the procession.

At the last moment before the start a fire of Chairman Case's car went flat and Mr. Case went into Mr. Baird's car and Mr. Hunt into Mr. Huntington's. Owners of the cars generally rode in the back of the children.

TAFTVILLE AFFAIRS

Mrs. Mary Drake Still Unconscious at Backus Hospital—Struck by Auto at Tafts Station Saturday—Funeral of George W. Whittlesey.

Mrs. Mary Drake of Jewett City, who was struck by an automobile owned by Charles Sengman of Occum at Tafts station Saturday afternoon, just after she had stepped from the Jewett City car due in the square at 2:40 o'clock still remains unconscious and her condition is considered serious. Mrs. Drake with her daughter was on the way to visit relatives who live near Tafts station at the time. She had just left the Jewett City car and was crossing in front of the William-mantic car which had stopped at the waiting room and had just started into the road. The automobile coming along at a moderate rate of speed bound for the city, struck her a glancing blow. Mrs. Drake was thrown forcibly for some distance down the road and rendered unconscious. The driver stopped his machine and the injured woman with her daughter were taken in the machine to the Backus hospital where an examination of her injuries was made. It was found that she had suffered injuries about the head and other parts of the body, but no bones were broken. It is uncertain just what the outcome will be.

Mr. Sengman did not see the woman until he was right upon her with no time to stop his machine before it struck her. However he severed sharply to one side of the road in an effort to avoid hitting her. Shortly afterwards another automobile struck and killed a dog near Tafts station and a third machine killed a goose.

FUNERAL

George W. Whittlesey. The funeral of George W. Whittlesey was held from his home, Slater avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Edward S. Worcester officiating at the services. The bearers were: George Whittlesey, Charles Whittlesey, C. G. Lillibridge, L. A. Tillinghast, George Young and Harry E. Prentice, and burial took place in the Yanke cemetery. There was a large attendance and there were a number of beautiful floral offerings bearing testimony to the high esteem in which Mr. Whittlesey was held.

Undertakers Henry Allen & Son had charge of the funeral arrangements. Mr. Whittlesey, who died Thursday morning about six o'clock following an illness of about a week, was prominent in Grand Army circles and was among the best known men of Norwich. He was a nephew of the late Edward Chappell, the well known coal and lumber dealer.

He served in the army as a sergeant major and adjutant during the Civil war and rendered very efficient service. On May 11, 1861 he was mustered into the 10th Co. D of the Third Connecticut regiment (Captain Edward Harland) and on August 12 of the same year he was honorably discharged. On Feb. 18, 1862 he was mustered into the Thirtieth Connecticut regiment (Col. H. W. Burge) and was promoted to the rank of adjutant. He left the service on October 5, 1862.

He was a member of the Broadway Congregational church and took much interest in the welfare of the church affairs.

Mr. Whittlesey, who came to Taftville to reside in 1878, was twice married. His first wife died in 1880 and later he was united in marriage with Miss Emma Blackmar, who survives him. Mr. Whittlesey also leaves one daughter, Miss Susie C. Whittlesey, by his first marriage. He was the last of his immediate family.

POLICE MOTORCYCLE

Machines For Use of Norwich Department—Policeman M. Carroll to Ride.

The new motorcycle for the Norwich Police department which has been bought by the city to have a motorcycle policeman on the force arrived on Saturday at the store of C. V. Pendleton, Jr., through whom it was bought by the police commissioners and will be delivered to the department today. Mr. Pendleton will at once begin giving Policeman Michael Carroll his riding lessons, as this officer has been selected to be the motorcycle "cop."

In adding this up-to-date auxiliary to the Norwich force it is the intention of the commissioners to have the motorcycle man do patrol duty in the outskirts of the city in the day time, where under present conditions a policeman is little seen. These include the limits on the West Side, Thamesville, Laurel Hill, the East Side, Greenville and the Falls. The motorcycle cop will have a schedule to follow in making his tours and at other times will be on duty at headquarters to answer emergency calls. The machine is a two-speed Excelsior, fully equipped.

In Vaudeville This Summer.

Johnny Murphy, who has just finished the season with Primrose & Duckstadter, has been making a brief visit at his home on the East Side. He is to return to New York at once to prepare for six or seven weeks in vaudeville with his partner. With the minstrels they have just concluded their most popular season as a dancing team.

Bolivia is soon to have four new railway lines.
